FOREWORD

Here in our JOURNAL, we, the class of 1955, see ourselves, our activities, our big moments, our friends, our classrooms and teachers. As we examine the tiny figures which roam through the pages of our book, we smile at the artist's concept of the types we have known in high school. In them we see ourselves as others see us.

The value of this book will increase as the years widen the gap between us and our school days. Let us then open our yearbook with a prayer that the promise of our youth will be realized, that the knowledge we have gained will enrich our lives, and that the events pictured here will become heart-warming memories.

DEDICATION

During his years at Taunton High School Mr. Edward F. Kennedy, Jr., has worked faithfully and untiringly both as assistant headmaster and as guidance director. As a token of our respect for his administration and gratitude for his efforts in helping us reach our future goals, we, the class of 1955, respectfully dedicate our yearbook.

PRAYER

Dear Lord, we pray that we may cherish the good things of life: friendship, justice, loyalty; that we may have courage in adversity and humility in success; that we may be free of false humility and foolish pride.

Grant us, we beseech Thee, the gift of cheerfulness, that we may meet life with a smile; the gift of wisdom that we may see Thy plan in all things; the gift of loving-kindness that we may see in all men our brothers and Thy children.

Help us to discover and increase the talents with which we have been endowed and grant us the grace to use them for Thy greater honor and glory.

Amen.

HEADMASTER

To Members of the 1955 Graduating Class:

By the time your JOURNAL appears, only a few more days of actual high school will remain. For you, then, Taunton High School is about to become a memory rather than a reality.

I hope that your four years have been both profitable and pleasurable and that, as a result of your endeavors, you are better prepared to meet the problems and make the decisions that will confront you in later life.

I thank you individually and as a class for your cooperation and wish you a full measure of good health and success.

REVIEW OF THE CLASS OF 1956

This year has been a busy one indeed for the enthusiastic juniors. They are eagerly approaching their senior year, when they will continue their present activities and become leaders in many other school organizations. The class officers are Harold Goldstein, president; Nancy Kirouac, vice-president; Nancy Leonard, secretary; Barbara LaFrance, treasurer. Miss Borra, Miss Alice Knox, and Mr. Giannini are the class sponsors. Throughout the year the juniors continued their practice of remembering sick classmates with gift baskets. A Basketball Hop and a Football Hop were held—both very successful. Juniors were very active on the Student Council. Three of the four Council officers are juniors: Jane Bishop, vice-president; Evan Golder, secretary; Steven Gwozdz, treasurer. Other representatives are John Williams, Edward Carvalho, Louise Gajdasz, Shirley Kay, Anne Viera, Gina Nicoli, Lillian Lewis, and Lorette Larocque. Dianne Nelson, chairman of the Prom Decorating Committee, and her committee members transformed the assembly hall into a beautiful island in the South Pacific, complete with the deep blue of the sky and the sea and waving palm trees. Everyone worked very hard to make the prom a success and enjoyed a wonderful evening. Good luck to these energetic juniors in their senior year, which is bound to be a happy and prosperous one!

CLASS OF 1957

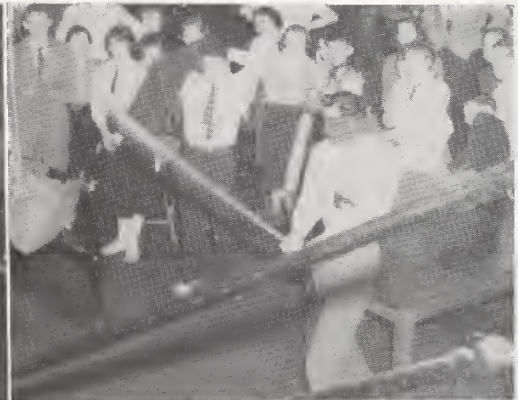

The sophomore class is beginning to be active in school clubs and activities. The following officers were elected by the class: Michael Fountain, president; June Gebelein, vice-president; Edward Foster, secretary; Joseph White, treasurer. The class sponsors are Miss Werner, Mr. Burns, and Mr. Perry. Student Council representatives are Michael Fountain, Mary Berry, Judith Correia, Constance Bury, and Alden Blake. The sophomore cheer leaders are Phyllis Poplack, June Gebelein, Eleanor Manning, and Patricia Cooper. David Jewitt, Karen Kaminski, Priscilla Pring, Mary Sue Roy, Phyllis Poplack, and Sylvia Amaral are reporters for the "Tauntonian." We hope the class continues its good work and enjoys the two years ahead!

CLASS OF 1958

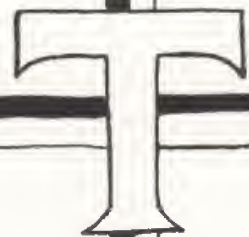

The members of the freshman class elected the following class officers: Wayne Burden, president; Dean Davis, vice-president; Janet Young, secretary; Patricia Silvia, treasurer. The class sponsors are Mrs. Turner, Mr. Goff, and Mr. Downing. Wayne Burden, Sam Richardson, and Rhoda Klitzner represent the freshman class on the Student Council. Sam Richardson reports the freshman news for the "Tauntonian". The class hopes to lessen the amount of dues to be collected in its junior and senior years by starting to collect this year on a strict monthly basis. The class of "58" is off to a good start!

CLUB REVIEW

Our many clubs have been very active this year presenting various types of programs for the enjoyment of their own members and for the benefit of the whole school.

The Dramatic Club had its most ambitious year, presenting two plays. The height of the theatrical season in Taunton was the presentation of "Cheaper by the Dozen" in December. The club members worked hard in supporting the cast to make this successful. This is the first time in several years that the Dramatic Club has undertaken such a task. The second play was presented in the club's annual assembly. Will we ever forget the thrilling who-dunnit, "The Mystery of the Silver-backed Hairbrush"?

The Junior Classical League has also had a busy program this year. On May 7 they will be host at a convention of Junior Classical Leagues from three New England states. For months, plans for this event have kept the club members busy. Sponsored by the club, their "Roman Romp" was very successful. Plans are in the making for a trip to the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston and for another record hop.

Also planning to visit the museum is the French Club. The Spanish Club is preparing for their annual observance of Pan-American Day.

To the Assembly Committee go our thanks for the excellent assemblies made possible through their efforts. The most popular were those in which our own students participated.

Will we ever forget the Talent Show, sponsored by Mrs. Hanna and the girls in the Girls' League; the sparkling program presented by the Glee Clubs; the informative and timely program about civil defense; or the entertaining presentation by the Boys' Public Speaking Club? Our outside talent was also varied. Programs especially enjoyed were Anne Reid and her skillful ways of using make-up for fun; Major Daniel James' inspiring talk on patriotism; Edward Rowe Snow's exciting sea stories; and Russell Curry's interesting and amusing facts about dancing and ballroom etiquette. (Remember, don't chew gum!) We commend our Assembly Committee for presenting an interesting and varied program.

The hub of all school activity is the Student Council. Its members were also very busy this year. Among their many projects were the cleaning and replacing of the classroom flags and the purchase of two beautiful American and state flags for the auditorium stage. The Council also sponsored the "Halloween Hop", the ever popular Student-Teacher Day, and the polio and heart campaigns conducted in the school. It also raised over $65 for Christmas Gifts for the M.S.P.C.C. One of the most important projects this year was the planning of a school handbook to be given to the freshmen each fall. This book will include school rules and regulations, a map of the school, an explanation of the clubs, classes, and courses, and other salient features of the school program of interest to a new student. We all should be proud of our council and support its many projects.

Through our clubs, the students are able to participate in worthwhile and educational projects and cultivate lasting interests.

1954 PIGSKIN PARADE

TOM LAWSON

The spirited Taunton eleven, coached by Ed Buckley, our third coach in four years, completed its best season since 1951, with a record of seven wins and two defeats. Getting off to a slow start, Taunton opened with a 14-12 loss to New Bedford Voke at New Bedford. Penalties and fumbles hurt the Orange and Black club considerably; however, the team showed lots of spirit with touchdowns being scored by Jess Almeda and Tom Lawson.

The Herringtownners broke into the win column with their second game by pulling a surprising upset over a strong Attleboro team with a 19-13 score. Tallies were made by Ed Carvalho and Jesse Almeda. Tom Lawson carried the ball in the backfield while Ron Beals, "Red" McGuire, John Fernandes, and Ron Craven were outstanding in the line. The Buckley men made it two straight victories by defeating Cambridge Latin 20-12. The team as a whole looked better than ever with Don Reilly playing exceptionally well in the quarter-back spot and baffling the Cantabs during the entire game. Almeda and Carvalho chalked up the scores while Bob Tessier was particularly strong on defense.

Trying for its third straight win, Taunton was trounced by the high-scoring, undefeated Wareham gridsters, 32-6. Ed Carvalho climaxed a Taunton drive by taking the ball over from the Wareham one yard line for the Herringtownners' lone score.

One of the Herringtownners' most impressive wins came at the expense of undefeated, "Class B" New Bedford with a score of 20-0. Taunton looked very strong during the whole game. Substitute back, Eddie Foster, carried the ball for five gains in the place of injured Jesse Almeda. John Fernandes, Paul Morin, and "Red" McGuire were outstanding in the line. The following week Taunton tripped "Class B" Durfee, 13-6, spearheaded by a spectacular performance in running and pass defense by Capt. Jess Almeda, who scored all of Taunton's points. "Red" McGuire and Bob Tessier again stood out on defense with "Abe" DeMoura, Ron Beals, and Ron Medas leading the Taunton defense.

Next the Herringtowners dumped the Somerset eleven 23-6. It was the fifth triumph for the high spirited Taunton team. Al Scully, Don Reilly, Tom Lawson, and Almeda accounted for the scoring with 12, 6, 2, and 1 points respectively. In the next to the last clash of the season Taunton edged North Attleboro in a 6-0 thriller. Long runs by Ed Carvalho, Jesse Almeda, and Tom Lawson set up the lone tally, taken over by Almeda. Taunton's line was exceptionally strong as North Attleboro, one of the heaviest teams in the area, found them a stone wall time and time again.

During the season the team was led by Captain Jesse Almeda, who did an excellent job. Congratulations and thanks go also to Coach Buckley, the cheerleaders, the majorettes, and the band, who kept the spirits high during the season. Besides winning the Bristol County championship, the city title and trophy, and finishing very high in Class C rating, Taunton High dominated the 1954 All-Bristol-County selections. On the first team were Jess Almeda, Bob Tessier, and Don Reilly. The second club held berths for Al Scully, "Red" McGuire, Ron Craven, John Fernandes, and Ed Carvalho, while those securing positions on the third eleven were Ron Beals, "Abe" DeMoura, and Tom Lawson. Receiving honorable mention were Ed LaFleur, Ed Foster, Ron Medas, and George Pina. Ed Buckley was very justly chosen Coach of the Year. Throughout the year the team's scoring was led by Jess Almeda with 47 points, Tom Lawson, 28, Ed Carvalho, 26, and Al Scully, 19. In closing, we wish next year's club, piloted by Ed Carvalho, all the luck and success we feel they deserve. We know they'll be trying their hardest. Good luck, fellows!

In a flash of glory Taunton won the county championship and the city title by bombing rival Coyle, 32-0. The two outstanding plays of the game were a blocked punt by George Pina, recovered by "Abe" DeMoura for initial score, and a 76 yard run by fullback Tom Lawson, who took scoring honors of the game with 19 points on three touchdowns and one extra point. The other scores were made by Al Scully on a pass from Jess Almeda and an extra point scored by Almeda. Don Reilly was a wizard at faking and calling plays, while everyone else on the team played his heart out for our most impressive win of the year.

BASKETBALL REVIEW

LOU DOVNER

The Taunton High basketball team completed a twenty-game schedule with a record of seven wins and thirteen losses. This over-all record does not indicate the excellent brand of ball that was played during the entire season. The team bounced off their 1954-55 basketball campaign by grabbing victories in their first three games. These were played against Archbishop Williams of Braintree, Falmouth, and North Attleboro. Then the Orange and Black lost a close contest to Braintree by a 48-46 score. Their second loss came at the hands of Attleboro, 70-52. Taunton snapped their two-game losing streak by edging Falmouth 53-52. Again, the Herringtowners dropped into a slump by losing their next three tilts to New Bedford High, Weymouth, and Durfee.

The Durfee game was certainly the thriller of the year. The decision of this hard-fought contest was not determined until the last minute of play when Durfee pulled ahead to win by a 61-59 margin. With spirits high, Taunton then proceeded to hand inter-city rival, Coyle, a 64-51 defeat. Having a record of five wins and four losses to this point, the Orange and Black hoopsters lost their next six games to shatter all hopes of entering the Class A Tech Tourney. Their only other two wins came at the expense of Coyle to retire the Mulcahy trophy to Taunton High for another year. The Herringtowners entered the Bay State Tournament but were eliminated by Brockton in the initial contest, 73-61.

In the personnel department, senior Fred Boehner led the team in scoring with 226 points. Fred was also selected on the Gazette's all Bristol first team. Other high scorers were sophomore Gene Fournier with 186 points; senior Lou Dovner, who missed almost half the games through doctor's orders, with 122; Junior Pete Wayslow with 120 to his credit; and Captain Larry Silvia with 100 points.

The future for basketball at Taunton High under the excellent handling of Coach Bob Daly certainly looks promising. Lots of success to Coach Daly and his squad of the future.

J. V. BASKETBALL

The junior varsity basketball team experienced a very successful season, completing the campaign with a record of fifteen victories and three losses.

The J. V.'s began their season with wins over Archbishop Williams, Falmouth, North Attleboro, and Braintree. They continued in this victorious fashion for their first fourteen games. During this time the team developed an intense spirit to win and forceful determination which lasted the entire season. They suffered their first loss, however, to New Bedford High when the Orange and Black experienced a poor night both offensively and defensively. Next, Taunton lost to Durfee at Fall River in a bitterly contested game which resulted in a 52-42 score. Win number fifteen for the J. V.'s came at the expense of Coyle. In the final game of the year Taunton lost to New Bedford Vocational to round out a triumphant basketball season.

The junior varsity squad was certainly filled with outstanding basketball material. In fact, many of the starters were called upon to fill vacancies on the varsity team and also to strengthen the support on the bench. Leading the offensive for the J. V.'s was Junior Pete Wayslow. Pete, who ended the season with approximately a seventeen point average per game, also started many of the last games for the varsity and was picked on the third team of the All-Bristol selectees. At the annual basketball banquet he was named Captain for the 1956 team. Gene Fournier and Harold Goldstein also figured strongly in the J. V. scoring, Gene finishing with approximately a 13 point and "Hash" with a 10 point per game average. Others who added greatly to the J. V. game were Jack Karol, Ken Laidlaw, Al Scully, Louis Emond, Myron Ashapa, and Ron Roucette.

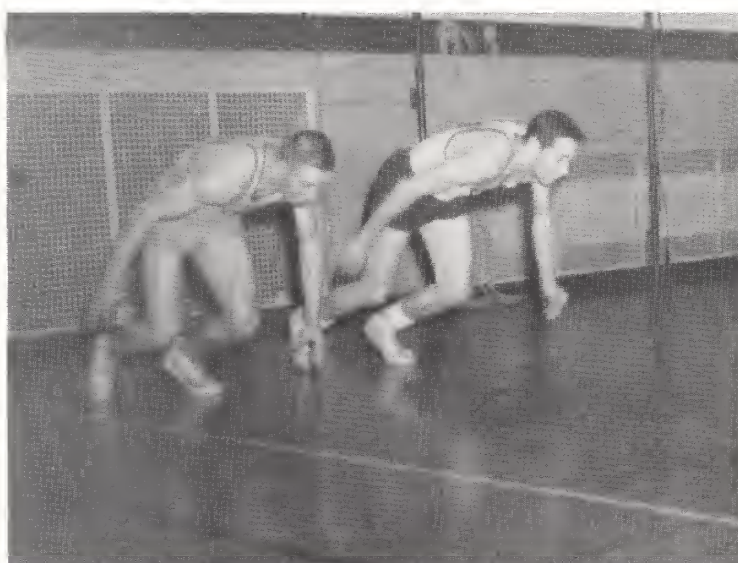

With many of this strong J. V. club seeking starting berths on the varsity squad, prospects of a winning basketball team in Taunton High seem quite bright for next year.

TRACK

This year the Taunton High Track team will enter Bristol County competition for the second year. Although Taunton was one of the first schools in the area to form a team five years ago, the official league was organized just one year ago. League competition includes Attleboro, Durfee, New Bedford, New Bedford Voke, and Taunton.

Conditioning and practice, led by Ed Carvalho and Tom Lawson, co-captains, and Coach Al Nunes, started with the first warm days of spring. In spite of the loss of two of last year's cinder stars, everyone is looking forward to a successful season. The only other lettermen returning besides Lawson and Carvalho are Ken Laidlaw and Howard Brown. Returning members and try-outs include Ben Macomber, Linc DeMoura, Ed LaFleur, Charles Levine, Dick Pober, Dave Trahan, Dick Demers, Billy Martin, Dave Reckard, Dave Cleathero, Bill Cote, and Brant Bollivar.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Girls' basketball has at last come into its own at Taunton High School! This year, for the first time, there is a girls' varsity team.

Captained by Harriet Wood and Nancy Ives, the team won two games over Norton and one over St. Mary's. They lost to Dighton, Case, and New Bedford Voke, although the scores for the last two games were extremely close.

Coached by Miss Sparling, the feminine hoopsters have been taught the technique of footing, passing, and shooting as part of their intensive training.

If one can judge by the enthusiastic shouts and cheers emanating from the gym on Monday and Wednesday afternoons, the girls' basketball teams in Taunton High School will make headlines in another season.

MEMORIES

Our life at THS is drawing to a close. Let's reminisce. Do you remember.....

Our first day.

Let's face it. We didn't REALLY have much homework.

And soon we got into the swing of things.

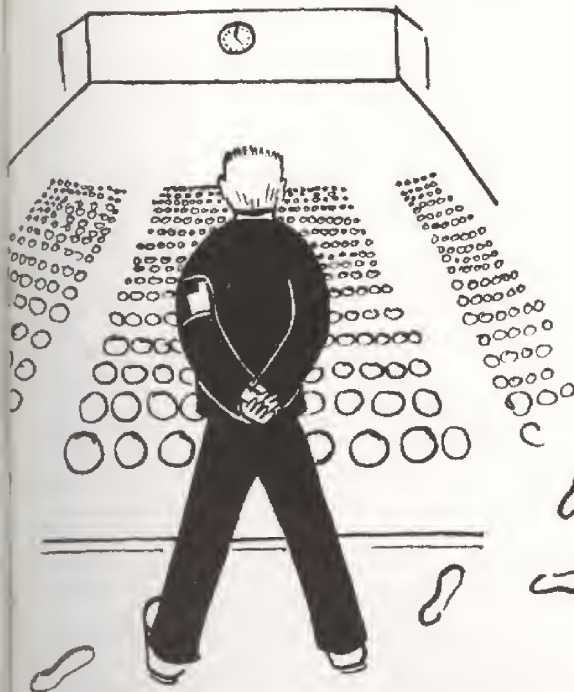

Off the beaten track.

MEMORIES

Am, the prom! Will we ever forget that fleeting even?

We came, we saw, we conquered; now—farewell.

"Mr. Bowman, members of the faculty, fellow students...."

ALL Ours! (for one period a week.)

A PAGE IN THE DIARY OF THE SPIRIT OF TAUNTON HIGH

. . . returned to my old haunts today and noted many changes at T.H.S.
. . . wonderful conveniences for students everywhere . . . large parking lot equipped with uniformed attendants . . . provision being made for erection of steamheated garages for winter use . . . welcoming committee cordially greeting students at the door . . . two water coolers in each home room . . . ice cubes, free . . . girls' room equipped with wall to wall deep pile carpeting . . . dressing tables lining the wall with seats upholstered in cream colored leather . . .
huge mirrors everywhere . . . blush pink walls . . . uniformed matrons always ready with fresh fluffy towels . . . emergency room with all modern medicinal staples including aspirin and alka-seltzer . . . students bright-eyed, happy, wide awake, and eager (at recess) . . . excellent service from waiters and waitresses in lunchroom . . . wonderful lunch—delicious lobster salad garnished with avocado and served with piping hot rolls . . . three dimensional murals covering walls
. . . small orchestra playing dinner music . . . four coke machines on each floor . . . elevators run by uniformed attendants . . . chromeplated escalators

. . . clean soft brushes supplied fresh each week to the aspiring Van Gogh's of 313 . . . moisture controlled, dust-free air supplied at all times by air conditioning unit—temperature accurate within one seven thousandth of a degree . . . top name orchestra playing in auditorium for study room pupils with no homework . . . latest Cinerama educational film being shown in climate-controlled lecture hall . . . Everything seems different—and yet . . . I wonder. Strangely familiar things are seen and heard all through the corridors . . . the same “Eu, eu, eu,” coming from 122 . . . 102 still decorated gayly for forthcoming holidays and pupils still dividing all Gaul into three parts . . . 303 sporting the same ominous odors . . . students in 017 chanting blithely, “Arma virumque cano” . . . from 016 the echoing “buenos dias” . . . delicious smells of almost perfect gingerbread emanating from 02 . . . everywhere a small percentage of students observed with their heads on their desks, obviously in the arms of Morpheus . . . seniors conspicuous because of the 117 $\frac{1}{4}$ inch diameter of their heads, which are filled with apprehensions over college acceptance . . . freshmen eagerly inquiring about the third floor and the elevators and escalators leading to it . . . Yes, I guess it's still the same place. It seems that human nature of high school pupils and faculty—the world over—will never change . . . I hope!

I

am the typical senior, the "glass of fashion and the mold of form." Sometimes petty perhaps but—big enough in heart to lend a helping hand to an underclassman when he needs it.

We teach the underclassmen that a little "apple polishing" never hurt anyone.

However, we neglect to warn them that "apple polishing" doesn't always work!

My teachers turned the tables and outwitted me! Here I am with double assignments in everything from solid geometry to boys' foods.

We finally made it—Here we are "ending the beginning."

CLASS ACHIEVEMENTS

"Our deeds follow us, and what we have been makes us what we are."

Since we were freshmen, we have tried to improve our school as well as be a credit to it. Our class has played an important part in bringing about some improvements to the school and in showing what high school students are capable of accomplishing.

First we have the privilege of saying that it was while we were seniors that our band members received their much needed uniforms. Although these uniforms represent the net result of much effort from many classes which have since graduated, we may remember with pride that our class helped to give the extra bit of effort that finally resulted in our band's being properly attired.

Then the booklet which was sent to Taunton, England, as a token of good will does much credit to the high school. The time, effort, talent, and craftsmanship which went into the making of the book show that the members of our class who did such a large share of the work have presented Taunton High at its best.

Another innovation in which our class has also had a hand is the publication by the Student Council of a handbook which will be available in the future for all entering students. The manual contains the rules of the school, qualifications for membership in clubs, a map of the building, and other pertinent and necessary information. Again we may pride ourselves on our role in the venture.

For many years the condition of the flags was deplorable. This year a committee from the School Council, composed of some of our classmates, made a survey of the flags. As a result, the homerooms and auditorium are resplendent with bright new banners.

Last of all is our class gift—a tree planted by the Class of 1955 as a lasting addition to the school grounds. "He who plants a tree plants a hope." With this tree, our class has planted the hope that the students of Taunton High School may continue in the future to make their good deeds indicative of what they are.

TO OUR TEACHERS

During the past four years you have been the essence of our high school life. We may seem to have taken you for granted because you were always with us; yet we are grateful now for examples of your patience and interest. You have striven to teach us all that is possible in four years. You have knowingly turned a deaf ear to our sometimes thoughtless remarks. You have inspired us all with your help and guidance along the tortuous road to wisdom and understanding. For all of this, then, the class of 1955 says, "Thank you".

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The members of the JOURNAL Staff wish to express their deep gratitude to the following people who contributed to the success of our yearbook:

Miss Marguerite C. Smith, our sponsor, whose untiring efforts and guidance made possible this JOURNAL. We sincerely thank her.

Mrs. Virginia Joki, for her guidance on the Quotation Committee.

Mr. Harold C. Palmateer, Jr. of the Advertisers Engravers Company, for his aid in preparing the JOURNAL.

Mr. Baacke and Mr. Irons, of the C. A. Hack Company, for their interest and advice.

Mr. James A. Patriquin and staff of the Armand Studios for their cooperation and generosity.

Our subscribers and advertisers for so generously supporting the JOURNAL.
